Weekend In Warsaw

First Day...

Morning arrival in Warsaw. On this day we will see: part of the Royal Route – the most representative route of the city connecting the Royal Castle with Wilanów. The Royal Castle is the seat of Polish rulers since the time of Sigismund III Vasa, which moved the Polish capital from Krakow to Warsaw and its column towers over Castle Square. At the Castle, you'll see valuable exhibits, including insignia and royal thrones or paintings of famous painters, among others Rembrandt, Canaletto and Matejko. We will cross Cracow suburb and its surroundings to see the Presidential Palace, Hotel Bristol, University of Warsaw, church of St. Cross, monument to Nicolaus Copernicus, Zachęta gallery, Tomb of the Unknown Soldier or Łazienki Park. Palace of Culture and Science for those willing (possibility of going to the observation deck on the XXX floor). Free time. Transfer to the hotel and overnight.

Second Day

After breakfast we suggest a trip into the past: visiting the Palace in Wilanów called the Polish Versailles. Palace with the beautiful park surrounding it is a wonderful palace and park complex, whose history begins in 1677. It is entirely Baroque and is a wonderful combination of European art and Old Polish building art. In winter, the working Winter Garden of Light is worth seeing - it is an outdoor exhibition based on the illumination of millions of lights arranged in beautiful patterns in the company of amazing music. Free time. Transfer to the hotel and overnight.

Third Day

After breakfast visiting the Copernicus Science Center - it is a real paradise for lovers of science and knowledge. A place where not only children will find entertainment. Transfer to airport. Departure.

Weekend In Gdańsk

First Day...

Morning arrival in Gdańsk. Transfer to the Old Town. A guided tour, in the program: Motława waterfront, Żuraw, St. Mary's Street, Długi Targ, Neptune's Fountain, Artus Court, St. Mary's Basilica with the entrance to the viewpoint. Free time in the Old Town. In the second part of the day, transfer to Westerplatte. It is a peninsula Between the Gulf of Gdańsk and the Dead Vistula. This place is a symbol of the outbreak of World War II. This is where the first fight against the Third Reich took place. At 4:45 in the morning of September 1, the German battleship "Schleswig Holstein" directed the missile at the Polish outpost. In 2003, the battlefield at Westerplatte was entered on the list of Monuments of History. Accommodation, dinner, overnight.

Second Day

Breakfast. Transfer to Oliwa. There, the group will visit the Cathedral and listen to an organ concert that attracts tourists from all over the world. Then drive to Sopot and walk along the pier. The view of the sea together with the modern marina makes a huge impression. It is definitely a place worth visiting, because it is one of the most beautiful resorts in Poland! Transfer to Gdynia. There, the group will have free time for a walk and tasting the sea delicacies. Staying in a maritime climate, the group will visit the ship destroyer ORP Błyskawica (lightning) and the sailing ship Dar Pomorza (Gift of Pomerania). Return to the hotel, dinner and overnight.
